1. (S/NF) Abdul Hakim al-Iryani, Advisor to Foreign Minister Qirbi, faxed the Embassy on July 8 (text para 3) to request assistance in determining the intelligence affiliation, if any, of Mr. Musalam Mohamed Lahmood and Mr. Jasim Mohamed Ibrahim. Iryani identified Lahmood as the Director of the Iraqi school in Moscow, and Ibrahim as a teacher at the same school. Both have requested Yemeni residency on financial grounds.

2. (S/NF) Post has shared the 7/8 fax with ORCA and DAO for action.

3. (U) Text of July 8 fax from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

(Begin text)

Following are the names of two Iraqi nationals who request residence visa to Yemen. 1) Musalam Mohamed Lahmood, the director of the Iraqi School in Moscow; 2) Jasim Mohamed Ibrahim, English teacher in the same school. Both men are in Moscow now. Please note that the two persons are not diplomats, and they did not request asylum. They indicated their desire to come and work in Yemen because they did not have any income in Moscow, and they are not allowed to work there. Any information on the above mentioned persons will be appreciated, especially information related to possible links to Iraqi Intelligence.

Thank you.
